

STUDENT LOAN ELIGIBILITY AGREEMENT – STUDY ABROAD

If you are applying for StudentAid BC funding during your study abroad term, you must complete and submit the Student Loan Eligibility Agreement to the Student Awards & Financial Assistance (SAFA) office prior to leaving Canada. To be eligible for and to maintain current student loan funding while on an exchange program, you must meet the following criteria:

- Your study abroad course credit(s) must be a part of an eligible KPU program.
- You must maintain full-time status at KPU during the exchange study period.
- KPU must have a partnership agreement or study abroad policy with the partner institution.
- The partner institution must be accredited as verified by one of the five accrediting bodies approved by StudentAid BC to be eligible for student financial assistance (Study Abroad Advisor will verify this for you)
- Transferability of all course credit(s) from the partner institution must be approved and confirmed by KPU in advance (RLOP Form) of StudentAid BC funding and must be transferable (at a full-time equivalent) to KPU.
- After you complete the exchange, KPU must review the credits obtained, confirm transferability and promptly report any withdrawal and/or unsuccessful term as per standard StudentAid BC policy.
- For the Period of Study, breaks in full-time study are permitted as long as the combined break time does not exceed 10 percent of the study period weeks. No break can be longer than two consecutive weeks, except for the year-end break, which can be up to three weeks in length. This is to ensure students maintain full-time studies throughout their period of studies.
- Ensure that the requested dates for funding are linked to KPU semesters.

For further information on eligibility and general guidelines, please refer to the 2022/2023 StudentAid BC Policy Manual.

Once SAFA has received your Student Loan Eligibility Agreement, you may then submit your application for StudentAid BC funding online at www.studentaidbc.ca. By signing the Student Loan Eligibility Agreement (attached), you acknowledge you are responsible to maintain and successfully complete at least a 60% course load. If you withdraw (or drop below the 60% minimum course load) or you do not successfully complete at least a 60% course load during your study abroad term, KPU is required to report your study status, for both funded and interest-free study periods, to the appropriate provincial authority (i.e. StudentAid BC). This may negatively affect any future student loan funding for which you may be eligible.

*Students applying for student loans when going on study abroad opportunities must apply for funding at least 6 weeks prior to departure to ensure sufficient processing time. ****

*You may wish to appoint a Power of Attorney (POA) that can act on your behalf while you are studying abroad. * For more information on this you can visit the following page: <https://bit.ly/2YSbM2A>
